DESCENDANTS OF JACOB & ANNA (GUNDAKER) HUBER

Jacob and Anna Gundaker were married around 1879-1880. They had a son at this time but I am unsure of his exact name. Cousins Naomi Huber and Blanche (Huber) Stuller told me back in 1975 that his name was, I believe, Daniel Edward but went by Edward. I do however have a calling card from the past, (I do have a lot from descendants at the turn of the 20th Century), with the name of an EDGER H. HUBER. I have not come across any descendant with the name Edger or ever Edward other than this possible link.

Anyhow, Jacob and Anna separated and She and the son moved to Erie, PA. IT IS BELIEVED that "Edward" lived on lower State Street and had 5 children in the 1920's.

I tried to locate some descendants in the 1970's but to no avail. I will continue to try and will forward any information that I find.

HUBER-ROHA-ROAE REUNION 6-19-1920

I DO NOT KNOW THE REASON FOR THE HUBER-ROHA-ROAE REUNION, BUT THE ROHA-ROAE DID HAVE THEIR FIRST ANNUAL REUNION IN AUGUST OF 1920. THE FIRST ANNUAL HUBER REUNION WAS HELD ON AUGUST 22, 1925. (THE LAST WAS HELD IN AUGUST 2005. IT IS NO LONGER HELD DUE TO LACK OF ATTENDANCE.)

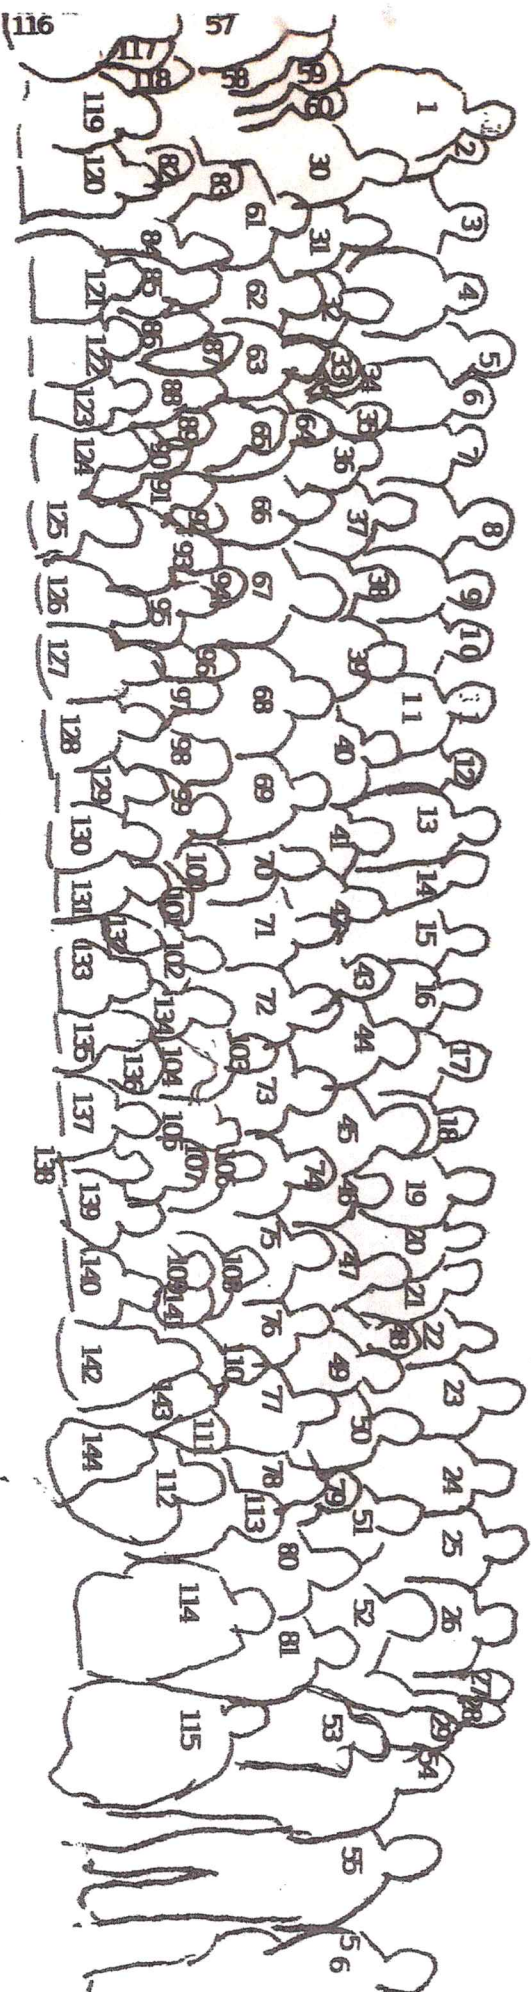

THE ROHA GENEALOGY UPDATED IN 1982, IDENTIFIED MOST OF THE INDIVIDUALS WHO ATTENDED. I HAVE ATTACHED A COPY OF THE PEOPLE INVOLVED IN THE IDENTIFICATION. I HAVE TWO DIFFERENT COPIES OF THIS REUNION AND HAVE USED A DIFFERENT COPY THAN THE ONE USED BY THE ROHA'S. THE COPY I USED IS BETTER THAN THE OTHER ONE THAT I HAVE AS SOME OF THE CHILDRENS HEAD ARE NOT BLURRED. AND SOME OTHER FACES ARE VISIBLE. IN ALL 123 OUT OF 144 ARE IDENTIFIED. IF YOU DISAGREE ON ANY OF THESE, PLEASE LET ME KNOW.

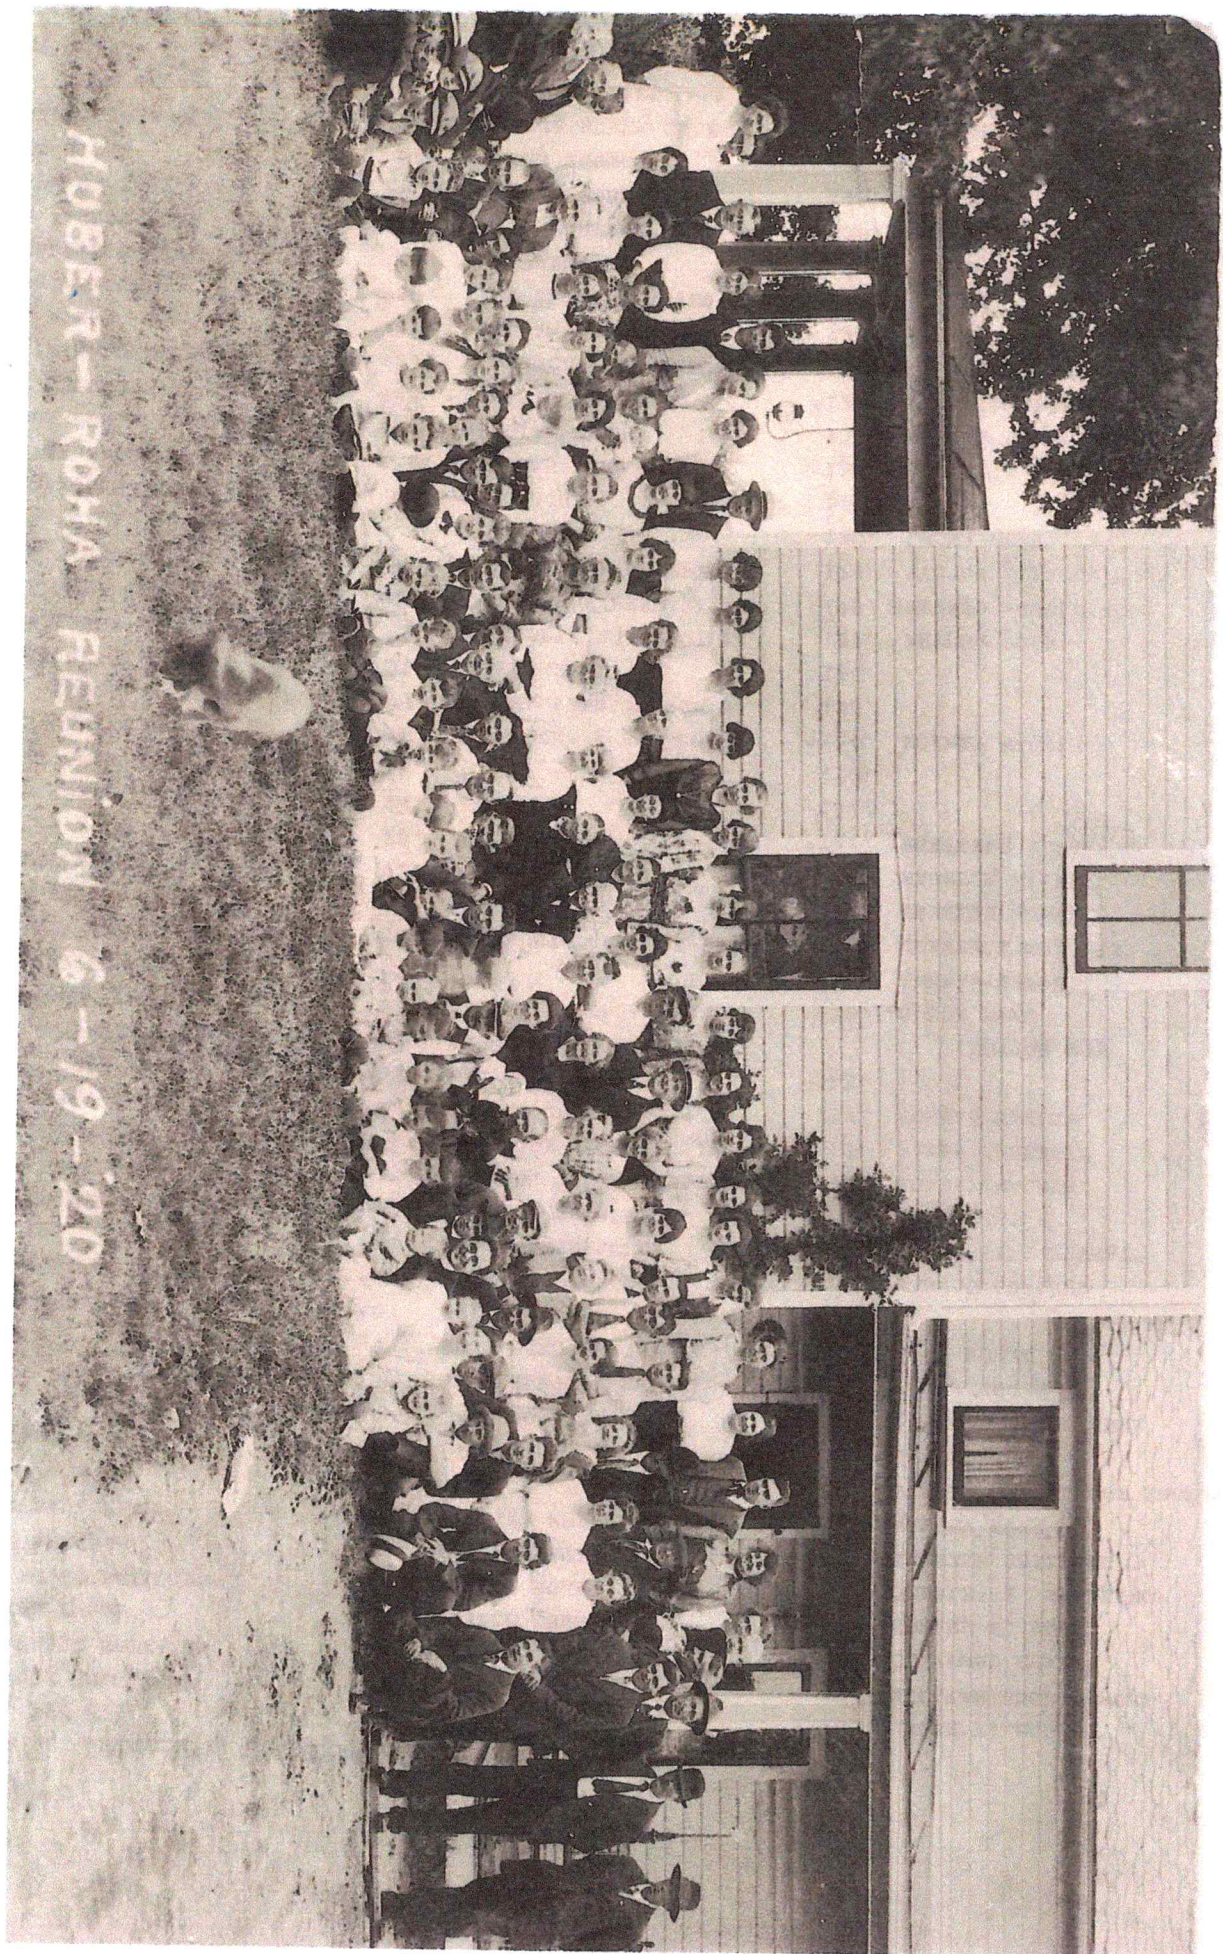

ROHA GENEALOGY

HUBER--ROHA-ROAE REUNION JUNE 19, 1920

The pictures on the preceding four pages are an enlargement of the picture of the Huber--Roha-Roae reunion taken June 19, 1920 at the home of the Adam Huber family two miles east of Meadville on the Titusville road. This is the oldest group picture we could find which we thought would be of interest to the descendants of Michael F. Roha.

We sincerely appreciate the interest and assistance provided by the persons whom we went to for help in identifying their relatives who are in the reunion picture. They are Florence Roha Reid, Blanche Huber Stuller, Naomi Huber, Irene Barickman Kress, Irene Prenatt Mailliard, Mildred Huber Foriska, Helen Popney Hamilton, Roy Prenatt and Harold Roha.

Find E. Mead Farmer Dead; Rule Suicide

Despondent since the death of his wife 16 months ago, William E. Huber, 71, East Mead Township dairy farmer, hung himself in his barn yesterday afternoon, County Coroner Luther J. King reported.

The coroner issued a verdict of suicide by hanging. He said death probably occurred about 1 p.m. Mr. Huber was last seen about noon, but he had not collected his mail left at the farm about 1:30 p.m.

Huber's body was found at 7:30 p.m. by a lifelong friend and neighbor, Frank Hunter, William Hunter and William Giddings. The body hung by a rope from a rafter in the barn, and nearby was a note scrawled on the back of a poster: "Goodbye. Don't take it hard. I can't stand it any longer."

Sgt. G. C. Nadeo of the local substation of state police, said Huber lived alone at his home on the 80-acre Hunter Hill, R. D. 7, Meadville, farm. His wife died December 24, 1947.

Nadeo said the neighbors were prompted in their search for the man when Frank Hunter noticed that "cattle in the barn were very restless."

Mr. Huber, member of Elser Hill-Mead Grange and the Italian Civic Club, is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Albert L. Charlot of Oil City, and Mrs. Mark Schweitzer of R. D. 5, Meadville; three grandchildren; two great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Shilling of R. D. 5, Meadville.

Funeral arrangements, under direction of the Roofner Funeral Home, are incomplete.

Coroner Says Man Killed Himself 4/13/47

Crawford County Coroner Luther J. King said William E. Huber, 71, of Hunter hill section two miles east of Meadville, committed suicide by hanging yesterday.

In a note left to friends the man said he had been unhappy since the death of his wife in December of 1947 and that he was "tired of cooking and of mending my own socks."

"Goodbye—don't take it too hard," his message read.

The coroner said death apparently occurred at 1 p. m. He was found hanging from a rope in the haymow at 7:30 p. m. by neighbors who wondered why Huber's cows were acting as if unfed.

Huber operated a farm by himself.

ADAM AND EVE WERE WEDDED JUST A HALF CENTURY AGO

Union Township Couple Celebrate Their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Were Residents of Mead Township for a Period of Forty Years.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Huber, of Union Township, was recently celebrated.

Adam Huber and Eve Ehr Gott were married Sept. 20, 1866, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Clapp, then Pastor of St. John's Reformed Church, Union Hill. Mr. Huber purchased a farm in Mead (now East Mead) Township, on the Hunter road, and for a period of 40 years was a successful farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Huber performed their full share of hard work on the farm and retired a few years ago to spend the remainder of their days at the home of their son-in-law, Aaron Shilling, near Shaw's Landing.

Mrs. Huber was born in Germany, and came to America with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Ehr Gott, when she was a child of 10 years. The trip across the ocean to New York was made in a sailing vessel. From New York they journeyed up the Hudson River to Albany, from there to Buffalo, thence to Erie, on the canal, and from there to Meadville by stage. The journey from Meadville to Union Hill was made on foot, going out the Mercer pike, and half of the trip, two miles, was through the woods. The journey ended at the house of the late Adam Gundaker, in Fairfield, now Union Township.

The mother of Henry Klippel, Sr., happened to be in Meadville the day the Ehr Gott family arrived, and she acted as guide, carrying her 4-year-old son, the late Jacob Ehr Gott, in her arms all the way. The farm which was purchased by Louis Francis Ehr Gott 54 years ago is still in possession of his descendants. All have been good citizens and prosperous and progressive farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber have many friends who unite in wishing them many added years of happiness.

Funeral of Mrs. Mary Crate.

Services in memory of Mrs. Mary Crate were held at Waid's funeral home at 2 P. M. Saturday with Rev. W. H. Kerschner, pastor of the Watson Run Reformed Church, officiating. There were many in attendance and a large number of floral offerings were in evidence.

50th wedding Anniversary
Aunt Mame & Florientine Pernatt

AUNT MAME AND UNCLE FLORINTINE PERNATT'S 50th ANNIVERSARY

BY: Peggy Cozadd

July 17, 2006

I remember going to Aunt Mame and Uncle Florintine's 50th Anniversary. I must have been four or five years old at the time. That would date it between 1943-1945. The Second World War was in full force at the time. Everyone was very patriotic. You can see in the picture, Dan Kightlinger has on a Sailor hat.

Eva and Carl Pease are missing from the picture. Carl Pease was in the service. Perhaps Eva had just had her second child, Jimmy, at the time. I am guessing on this one but since Millie Huber is sitting in the front row with Linda as a baby, I know that they were born close to the same year.

I remember that my sister Marie Foriska, Dorothy Kightlinger and Delorse Pernatt did not want me tagging along with them. They told me that I was too "little" to play with them. I remember that Mom did not want to be bothered with me either. She wanted to talk to everyone. Good old Grandma, Maggie Huber, came to my aid. I spent part of the day sitting on her lap.

It is strange as you get older the little bits and pieces that you do remember of an event. I remember that I ate my lunch on a little table on the sun porch of the house. Aunt Mame had wicker furniture out there and some kind of a straw looking rug. She also had a picture of horses running in a big frame in her living room. They had a pot bellied stove in the living room and big old cook stove in the kitchen. But best of all, she had an organ. You had to pump it to make it work. I would pump it and Marie would play it. I thought it was a lot of fun. It had big pipes coming out from it. We would play and play and then Mama told us we were making too much noise.

Aunt Mame had black and white chickens that ran around loose. Mom had to stop me from chasing them around.

Aunt Mame had an out house. The inside of her out house was covered with fresh wall paper for the occasion. I had never seen a wall papered out house before.

As you know, I ended up raising Dorothy Kightlinger-Cozadd's four daughters after her death in 1969. As far as I know this is the only picture that she and I are both in.

As I am writing this, I just heard a large boom. It was the space shuttle reentering the earth atmosphere. 9:09 AM. There is such a huge difference in the way of life since the 1940's that it still amazes me when I think about it.

MAN LOSES LIFE WORKING ON SAW

East Mead Resident Fatally Injured as Circular Blade
Rouces Towards

A circular saw which became dislodged late yesterday afternoon caused instant death of an East
Mead township farmer.

Joseph T. Rose, 48, of Tus-sah, Pa., the victim, was bending over the saw while cutting an eight-inch log when the whirling blade suddenly jolted upward. The blade struck the farmer across the neck, severing his jugular vein,
the injury proving immediately
fatal.

Rose and his son, Joseph, Jr., had been cutting wood in a wood-shed about a quarter of a mile from the farmhouse and were cutting the final log of the day at the time of the accident.

The victim was widely known throughout the county, having for a number of years operated the Hilltop sawing service station on the Tusahville road in front of his home. He was a member of St.
Hippolyte R. C. Church, French-town.

He is survived by his widow and three children, Charlie,
Joseph, Arlene and Jean, at home, and Mrs. Paul Kightlinger, of Meadville.

A brother, Jacob Rose, of East
Mead township, and three sisters,
Mrs. Florentine Frensch and Mrs.
A. B. Huber, of East Mead township, and Mrs. E. S. Kidd, of Los Angeles, Calif., also survive.

Deputy Coroner Arthur Byham,
of Meadville, conducted an investigation of the tragedy and later announced that a certificate of accidental death had been issued.

The body was removed to the Fauld funeral home. Funeral ar-

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel and surprise
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift

TWO

DEATHS

Death of Henry F. Huber
Henry F. Huber, 78-year-old farmer of Star Route, Meadville, died at Spencer Hospital Monday at 3 p.m., following an extended illness. Born in Union Township, he had been a lifelong resident of this area. He had made his home with his grandnephew, Roy Huber, at the farm on Route 27, in East Mead Township, for several years.
